

Latest Scotland Yard figures show Negroes to be 16 times more likely to commit robbery with violence than Whites

BLACK CRIME

The appalling
truth

THE APPALLING TRUTH about Black criminality was borne out in figures recently released by Scotland Yard concerning robberies and violent thefts (i.e. muggings) in the Greater London area in 1982.

The figures, disclosed in Parliament in answer to a question by Mr. K. Harvey Proctor, the MP for Basildon, showed that of a total of 19,258 cases of robbery and violent theft reported in the London area last year no less than 10,960 of the identified culprits were Black. Of the remainder, 5,262 were White, 534 were gangs of mixed racial composition and the balance consists of assailants unidentified.

In other words, more than twice as many reported muggings were carried out by Blacks as by Whites.

These figures, however, represent only a part of the story. The figures were for the whole of the London area, including those boroughs where the Black population is comparatively sparse. If we take the proportion of Blacks among the entire population of the Greater London area — as distinct from particular boroughs where Blacks are heavily concentrated, such as Lambeth, Lewisham and Brent — we have a figure officially acknowledged to be 13 per-cent, or just over 1 in 8.

This means, by a process of simple arithmetic, that the average Black is more than 16 times more likely to commit an act of robbery or violent theft than the average White.

The release of these figures, which show similar racial proportions to the figures for London released in 1981, has predictably caused a barrage of protest on the part of the race relations industry and other organisations and individuals committed to the cause of multi-racial Britain. It is not surprising that it should have done! For the figures underline the total folly of trying to make this country multi-racial and to that end importing to our shores vast numbers of people with entirely different cultures, living habits and standards of morality to those of the indigenous British population.

The arguments produced by the multi-racialists against the Scotland Yard figures are truly pathetic. The main such argument is that they relate to just one category of crime and not to crime as a whole, and that they should, if proportion is to be established, cover other criminal acts, such as fraud for instance.

This argument conveniently ignores the fact that the category for robbery for which the figures have been released represents a vastly greater proportion of serious crime than any other. There is of course the crime of burglary, which is on a much smaller scale in the way of numbers of culprits involved, but of course in only a very few cases is the burglar seen by those whose property he burgles so that he can be identified by race. There is armed robbery, where the culprits attack premises where large sums of money or other valuables are to be taken and where firearms are used. Here again the numbers involved are much smaller and are in any case often masked.

There is of course rape, for which precise statistics relating to the race of the attackers have not so far been released. However, if reports of rape cases in the newspapers are anything to go by, it is certain that Coloureds again figure disproportionately among the offenders.

Likewise with riotous behaviour. The riots that convulsed over 50 British towns and cities in 1981 were engaged in predominantly by Blacks and other racial minority groups — as pictures of the riot scenes indicated very clearly.

And as for fraud, it must be stated, as with other offences, that the numbers of people involved are but a fraction of those involved in mugging. Only a minority of the population is indeed in a position to commit acts of fraud of the normal type. This minority would comprise people who own their own businesses, are partners in businesses or occupy some position in businesses or other bodies where they handle substantial sums of money. Such people require to begin with to be of a higher average intelligence than the general run of the population, and it is a fact that West Indians

BLACK CRIMINALS ON RAMPAGE

SUB-HUMAN

This vicious looking animal is 15-year-old Mark Allen who has been convicted of rape, robbery and buggery. Allen, who lives in Peckham, raped old ladies aged 82, 81 and 79, one of whom has since died. Monsters like Allen are the price that the people of Britain are having to pay for the criminal immigration policies of successive governments. He and his sort simply do not belong here. NEW FRONTIER asks: How many more crimes like those committed by this brute will the people of Britain have to suffer before the politicians realise that the only way to prevent such evils is to commence a policy of coloured repatriation?

NKOMO OUT!

UNTIL recently Joshua Nkomo had not a good word to say for either South Africa or Britain. It is therefore somewhat ironic that following his undignified departure from "Zimbabwe" he chose to go to South Africa, from where he was flown to Britain in the hope of being granted political asylum.

Mr. Nkomo and the people he represents must now rue the day that the infamous Lancaster House Agreement transformed the once-lovely country of Rhodesia into the chaotic absurdity called "Zimbabwe" that it has since become. The country is now rapidly returning to the barbaric tribalism that existed there before the coming of the White Man; it is a situation that is ideally suited to the purposes of the bloodthirsty tyrant, Robert Mugabe, who now rules the country.

But things would have turned out much the same had Nkomo emerged as the winner of the power struggle; for he is no less tyrannical, no less unscrupulous, and no less bloodthirsty than Mugabe.

Nkomo should never have been allowed to set foot in Britain. He is not wanted here anymore than are the millions of Blacks already residing in our country. New Frontier demands that Nkomo and his colleagues be expelled from Britain forthwith.

TRAITOR DIES

IT USED to be said that one should not speak ill of the dead; but that is a tenet to which we feel that we are unable to subscribe in the case of Donald Maclean. He was, after all, that most despicable type of criminal: a traitor.

No one who has any love for this country will mourn Maclean's passing. Like Burgess, Philby and Blunt he was born with every advantage that life has to offer; but like them he chose to prostitute his privileged position and his undoubted talents by selling his services to a foreign power.

It is reported that Maclean died an ill and lonely old man. If that were so he had no one to blame but himself, and we have no sympathy for him. We shall never know how much damage was done to our country or how many patriots of other countries lost their lives as the result of the perfidy of Maclean and his colleagues.

Maclean's final insult to the people of Britain was to make arrangements to have his ashes brought here. In our opinion it would be more fitting for them to be consigned to where they rightly belong — to the dustbin of history.

The Editor has sent the following letter to Dr. Hugh Montefiore, Bishop of Birmingham:

My Lord Bishop,

You were recently reported in The Daily Telegraph as saying that "anti-Semitism, like all forms of racial hatred, needs to be resolutely opposed and shown up for the lies and filth that it is."

As a Jew-turned-Protestant you must be aware that the Talmud specifically states that while it is no sin for a Jew to murder a Gentile, it is a great sin for a Jew to murder a fellow Jew.

You must also know that the founder of Protestantism, Martin Luther, in his tract Von den Jueden und ihren Luegen (On the Jews and their Lies) wrote about the attitude of Jews towards Gentiles in the following terms: "They hold that they cannot be too hard on us nor sin against us, because they are the noble blood and circumcized saints. We, however, are cursed goyim. And they are the masters of the world and we are their servants, yea, their cattle..."

I respectfully suggest, my Lord, that if you wish to wax loud about racial hatred you should aim your barbs at the most offensively racist people on earth — the Jews.

Yours sincerely,
Ronald Rickcord.

E.E.C. STICKS ITS NOSE INTO ULSTER

Time Government told Euro-meddlers: "Keep out!"

AT THE TIME when the Heath Administration was busily conspiring to take Britain into the Common Market, we were repeatedly told that membership would not affect our national sovereignty. Those of us who troubled to study the Treaty of Rome knew that this was not true, for Article 100 of the Treaty clearly states that the Commission "shall issue directives for the approximation of such legislative and administrative provisions of Member States as have a direct incidence on the establishment or functioning of the Common Market."

EXTRAORDINARY

It is therefore all the more extraordinary that some of the MPs who voted for Britain's membership of the EEC should now spout so

IAN PAISLEY
Labelled Europe Parliament as friends of the IRA

indignantly at the European Parliament's impertinent decision to investigate the political situation in Ulster, which, as Dr. Ian Paisley has so rightly said, is nothing more than "a vote for the IRA." Of course, the MPs are quite right to resent this latest interference by the EEC in matters which are not its concern; but what a pity that they did not grasp what the Treaty of Rome was all about before they voted that we should hitch ourselves on to the EEC.

NO RIGHT

Fortunately, however, Article 144 of the same Treaty limits the powers of the Euro-Parliament to those of a purely advisory nature, with the sole exception that in certain circumstances it can dismiss the Commission. Hence it has no right to order an investigation into the affairs of Ulster, and by attempting to do precisely that, it is acting ultra vires.

For that reason, the Government should refuse to allow the investigators anywhere near Ulster, and should they object, they should be told to "get lost!" in no uncertain manner. But unfortunately the Government, for all its brave words, seems likely to cave in and allow the investigation to go ahead.

There is also an added danger: should the Euro-Commission, rather than the Euro-Parliament, order an investigation, the Government would, under the terms of the Treaty of Rome, have no option but to comply. This all goes to prove what an absurd monstrosity the EEC really is; for under the Treaty its well-paid functionaries are all-powerful, while its Parliament, which supposedly represents European electors, has only an advisory role.

E.E.C. HEADQUARTERS
Nest of meddlers

Mrs. Thatcher should tell British Eurocrats, bureaucrats and MEPs that the party is over, and that they should pack their bags and return to Britain without further ado.

particularly are only very rarely to be found in such positions. Asians are of course in business in much greater numbers and a racial breakdown of fraud cases which revealed the proportion of Asians involved would indeed be interesting. Again, if newspaper reports are anything to go by, this proportion might give little comfort to the race relations lobby.

The defrauding of the Department of Social Security represents an entirely different category to that which we have just mentioned, and again a racial breakdown of offenders, if it were released, would be of interest.

The overall picture is then that in the most common and widespread types of crime we have facts and figures which show an alarming, indeed quite frightening, tendency of Blacks towards criminality.

This means that if we are to do something really effective to stop the terrifying increase in the crime rate in Britain there is one indispensable policy that we must adopt: a policy of wholesale repatriation of the country's Coloured community.

AN ARTICLE that recently appeared in the Daily Mail under the heading "Why are we so Beastly?" drew attention to the frequency with which British actors are cast in the roles of crooks and villains in films and TV plays. The article suggested that this phenomenon occurred because only British actors have the ability to play such parts convincingly — which seems to be a polite way of saying that we Britons are rather a nasty lot.

But is it true that only British actors can play the baddies? In the past, actors of every race under the sun have managed to play villainous parts; so why not now? And, for that matter, why is it that so often nowadays Blacks, Browns and Yellows are cast in the roles of judges, lawyers, doctors, police chiefs and the like, while Whites are cast as crooks, layabouts and perverts? It seems extraordinary that we so seldom see Negroes, Asiatics or Jews playing these parts, especially in view of the well-known propensity of many of these races for every sort of crime.

Racial miscasting of this sort is often so ludicrously unrealistic that it detracts from the credibility of the plot, frequently spoiling the audience's enjoyment. So why is it that nice British actors and actresses are so often to be found playing the parts of the nastiest people imaginable? Is it because there is a shortage of non-Britons capable of playing the parts, or is it purely accidental?

It is neither. The continual casting of Coloureds as goodies and Whites as baddies is a visible manifestation of a cleverly orchestrated plot designed to convince Britons that they are inferior to the hordes of dark-skinned invaders who have flocked to our country in recent years; and to inculcate them with the idea that they alone are responsible for the backwardness of the "disadvantaged" races.

But why should this be? Who would wish to pervert the truth in this way? Who has anything to gain by it?

There's no need to look very far for an answer: all that is necessary is to examine the names of the people who finance and control the film and TV industries, and who produce and direct so many, perhaps most, of the films and plays that are screened in this country today. Get the gullible goyim sufficiently addicted to the idiot box and they will believe almost anything.

VICTIMS OF BLACK VIOLENCE

....but Roy Hattersley thinks they were mistaken!

THE FATUOUS ROY HATTERSLEY, Shadow Home Secretary, is one of the fanatical multi-racialists who have squealed in protest against the release of Black mugging figures by Scotland Yard for the London area, and he has been at pains to find an answer to the brutal facts which the figures disclose.

Eventually the answer he has come up with is that the testimony

TOXTETH RIOT

VICTIMS IN HOSPITAL

Top to bottom: PC Tony McConachy, PC Terence Workhouse, PC Thomas Mutch, PC Patrick Winters. Did they imagine they were attacked by Blacks?

70-year-old Mrs. Elsie Shuttleworth (left) was beaten up and mugged by a Black in Lewisham. Lucy Giles, 73, (right) was beaten and robbed by a Black in her flat in Brixton. Did they dream it all up, Mr. Hattersley?

of the victims of the muggings is unreliable. They could, says Mr. Hattersley, have been mistaken about the race of their assailants!

This is of course theoretically possible. In just a few cases there may have been victims with such deficient eyesight that they thought their attackers were Black when in fact they were White. But by the same token there could be an equal number of people who thought their attackers were White when in fact they were Black!

COMMON SENSE

Common sense tells us that in the vast majority of cases where people have been mugged and have identified the colour of their assailants to the police they have been correct in that identification — after all, whatever their views on racial matters, they surely want the culprits to be caught, and giving false information to the police as to their colour is the very last thing they would do in that case.

Roy Hattersley, by suggesting that the victims of such attacks could be wrong to the extent of substantially altering the police figures, is grossly insulting the intelligence, faculties and integrity of the vast majority of muggers' victims. Does he really believe the claptrap he is talking? Or is he just cynically fishing for Black votes?

TALKING POINTS

by FRONTIERSMAN

GIVING US THE CREEPS!

At the Labour party's local government conference that was recently held in Portsmouth, Labour's Shadow Environment Secretary, the dreadful Gerald "Creep" Kaufman, promised that a future Labour government (assuming that there is one) will abolish the 47 shire counties in England and Wales. In their place Labour will erect a few monster bureaucracies that will be responsible for education, highways, planning, housing, dustbin-emptying and street-sweeping etc. etc. One notable exception is that under Labour's plan, the GLC will not be abolished!

By this means Mr. Kaufman and his cronies will carry on the work initiated by Mr. Heath in 1972, when several of our ancient counties were either abolished or mutilated — an act of wanton vandalism which was later dealt with at some length in a Spearhead article appositely entitled "The Boundaries of Madness." But I've a much better idea for the benefit of the long-suffering people of Britain. Instead of abolishing our Shires, let's abolish the repulsive Mr. Kaufman and those like him who wish to destroy our (though not his) heritage! He's enough to give anyone the creeps!

A MAD WORLD

I see that Hounslow Council, with the aid of Mr. Brian Rix, is pioneering a programme to provide sex education for the unfortunates who live in the Council's homes for the mentally defective. It is claimed that the aim of the programme is to enable mentally retarded people to "express their sexuality." Advice will be given on such matters as intercourse, masturbation, contraception, pregnancy, abortion, sexually transmitted diseases, homosexuality and incest. Guidelines issued by the Council's Social Services Committee state that "if (mentally defective) couples wish to cohabit, and to continue to live within our establishments, we should not expect them to live separately, and opportunities should be made available for them to live as 'normal' life as possible." But the guidelines don't say who will pay for the upkeep of any offspring resulting from sexual activity in the homes. It also seems that in the Council's view being "normal" includes "mature homosexual behaviour." I certainly know what I'd do if I were a Hounslow ratepayer: I'd do my utmost to have members of the Social Services Committee themselves mentally certified!

TRIBALISM IN "ZIMBABWE"

How things change! At the time when the infamous Lancaster House Agreement sealed the fate of Rhodesian Whites, The Daily Telegraph, like many other papers, was fulsome in its praise for Lord Carrington and Soames who engineered the sell-out. Now that tribalism has reached such a pitch that "Zimbabwe" is tottering on the brink of a civil war and even the bloodthirsty Joshua Nkomo has had to flee the country (probably to be given asylum in Britain) the Telegraph pompously proclaims that "Shona and Matabele will not live happily together, and it was at the very least misguided of Lord Carrington and of this Government, after the Lancaster House so-called 'Agreement', ever to have suggested otherwise." Apparently the Telegraph is at last waking up to facts about the world as it really is — and not before time. We Nationalists predicted many years ago what the outcome of British Government policy towards Rhodesia would be. Alas, we have been proved right.

IRGUN MAN VETOED

The news that Mrs. Thatcher's "political chief of staff", Mr. David Wolfson, recently travelled to Tel Aviv to persuade Mr. Begin to cancel the appointment of former Irgun terrorist Eliahu Lankin as Ambassador in London in place of Mr. Shlomo Argov, who was shot last year, will come as no surprise to readers of New Frontier. Grovelling to Israel has become quite the norm. If the Government must maintain diplomatic relations with a bandit state like Israel it should simply have informed Mr. Begin that Lankin was not welcome here, and that should he set foot in this country he would be arrested for the murder of many British soldiers in Palestine in 1946. One of Lankin's intended victims, the former British Military Commander in Palestine, General Sir Evelyn Barker, said of the proposed appointment: "We must be a lot of bloody fools even to consider such a thing." The General, now 87, added: "I've never heard of such nonsense." Exactly! Lankin's wife, Doris, would have been no more welcome here than her husband. This virago wrote a book about her terrorist activities entitled The Lady was a Terrorist, and she claims that it was necessary for Jews to kill British soldiers because the Jews were fighting against a "colonial régime." Mrs. Lankin is no lady and besides that she is wrong. Palestine was not a British colony; the country was administered by Britain under a mandate at the request of the United Nations. As usual the glib British simply did the UN's and Zionists' dirty work for them.

REASONS OF SECURITY!

It is astonishing to learn that the Lord Chancellor, Lord Hailsham, has ruled that documents relating to the proceedings of the committee chaired by the late Lord Birkett, which examined those people who were interned under the infamous Regulation 18b during World War Two, will not be made available for public scrutiny for another 100 years for reasons of State security. Security! Whose security? No wonder that Sir Oswald Mosley's widow has claimed that there is "an Establishment cover-up." So there is; not, however, for reasons of security, but to protect the reputations of some very important figures, albeit very unscrupulous ones, some of whom are still alive.

YOUR LETTERS

Sir,—With reference to the item in your January issue about police harassment of BNP activists in Liverpool, I wish to report that the same thing is happening here in Leeds.

At Elland Road on February 2 a fellow Nationalist and myself had only just started selling our New Frontiers, Spearheads and Young Nationalists on the Lowfields side of the ground where we always sell our papers, as do paper sellers of the SWP and NF, when along came the "Boys in Blue" to tell us to move on. So we moved down the road but it was only a matter of seconds before the same policemen told us that we were obstructing the pathway despite the fact that we had already been told to move on. We were then frisked and our bags were searched, and then we were told that if they saw us again we would be arrested for obstruction under the Highway Act.

This action by the police is in itself harassment, but as they allowed the older members of the other parties to sell their papers, it is obvious that they picked on us because we are young and they thought they could frighten us off.

But Leeds Young Nationalists have news for them: we will keep returning until they get sick of the sight of us. We aren't going to become yet another victim of the Establishment plot to silence the voice of British Nationalism. To our racial colleagues in Liverpool and elsewhere we say KEEP UP THE FIGHT! T. HAUNCH, Leeds Young Nationalists.

Both these talks provide ideal instructional material for educating young people in nationalism.

We also remind everyone of two other recordings still available which have proved very popular. These are:-

VOICES OF NATIONALISM

Side 1 of this cassette features recordings of parts of the speeches made at the Nationalist Unity rally in London on September 5th 1981. Hear John Tyndall, Ray Hill, Kenneth McKilliam, Len Bearsford Walker and others.

Side 2 consists of the third of the series of specially recorded talks by John Tyndall entitled The coming British revolution. In this talk Tyndall exposes the fraud of the political system masquerading as 'democracy' and outlines vital changes needed to raise the level of British political leadership.

As the advertisement below shows, the British National Party St. George's Day march for this year will be in Leeds. We urge all party activists, wherever they live, to make an extra special effort to be present on this important activity. In the case of Yorkshire activists, there is no excuse for non-attendance. In the case of activists living in other parts of the country, there will in most areas be coach or minibuss parties organised by their local branches to travel to the event. All these activists should get in touch with their Branch Organisers for details. Let's make this St. George's Day a really successful one for the party. Let's all get to Leeds on the 23rd April and show the flag!

MARCH LEEDS

Saturday, April 23rd (St. George's Day)

IN PROTEST AGAINST GOVERNMENT RUIN OF THE BRITISH TEXTILE INDUSTRY

Organised by the BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY

This is a NATIONAL ACTIVITY. Parties will be going by coach and minibus from many parts of the country. For details contact your local branch.

JOHN TYNDALL OBTAINS DISCHARGE FROM BANKRUPTCY

JOHN TYNDALL, Editor of Spearhead and Chairman of the British National Party, made a successful application for discharge from bankruptcy at Brighton County Court on March 16th. The discharge was suspended for 3 months and so will take effect from the 16th June.

There thus ended a three-year saga in which Mr. Tyndall's opponents had sought to ruin him personally and politically by pursuit of an expensive court action against him and, following this action, by pursuing him for £6,414.14 costs.

Mr. Tyndall was granted a discharge on promise to pay to the Official Receiver a sum in part settlement of debts arising out of this action. This sum, which has now been paid, was made available as a result of generous responses to an appeal made to the readers of Spearhead last year.

Mr. Tyndall would like to thank all those loyal supporters whose contributions have made this settlement possible.

Anti-CND campaign

Continued activity by members of the Cheltenham and Gloucester Branch has done a great deal to make the BNP well known in the area. Led by Organiser Robert Rhodes, the Branch has succeeded in putting the local CND very much on the defensive. The Branch plans to stage a sit-in at Stroud public library if the library authorities refuse to allow the BNP to have the same opportunity to display the party's literature as was recently given to CND, who were given facilities to stage a two week exhibition in the library. Mr. Rhodes told the Gloucester Citizen that the BNP "demands the same rights to express our views on controversial issues, including race, homosexuality, and abortion as the CND." Meanwhile, Mr. Rhodes and Mr. R. D. Molesworth have been conducting a very successful anti-CND campaign in the columns of local newspapers.

BADGES

We apologise for the fact that there has been a delay in dealing with orders for British National Party badges, advertised in our last issue as being available from mid-March.

We announced this on the basis of an undertaking by the supplying company that this would be the time by which the badges would be delivered. It is hoped that the badges will have arrived by the time that this issue appears.

We would also like to draw readers' attention to an alteration in the address to which orders for badges should be sent. These should in future be sent to: PO Box 446, London SE23 2LS. Cash should be sent with order. The cost is £1.25 (inc. postage).

Our magazine, though it believes in racial differences, opposes race-hatred. All those who oppose multi-racialism should attack the politicians who promote it, not the immigrants, who are merely its victims.

SUBSCRIBE!

In order to make sure of receiving New Frontier regularly, why not take out a subscription? The rate is £3.40 for 12 issues for subscribers in the British Isles. For subscribers overseas the rate is £4.00 for 12 issues (surface mail). Please make cheques/POs payable to New Frontier and send to New Frontier, P.O. Box 446, London SE23 2LS. After routine business had been dealt with, Mr. Morse then introduced Mr. Ronald Rickcord, editor of New Frontier and Organiser of the Milton Keynes BNP, who gave a talk entitled "CND-NO! DEFENCE -YES!" During his hour-long talk

RONALD RICKCORD

Mr. Rickcord slammed CND, describing it as a bunch of traitors and exhibitionists, some who were of "indeterminate sex", who would be prepared to surrender Britain to any aggressor; but he blamed the Government for contributing to CND's recent success by its decision to rely on American weapons like Cruise and Trident for defence. Mr. Rickcord continued his talk by calling for Britain's withdrawal from NATO and the removal of American servicemen and their weapons from Britain. He suggested that American nuclear weapons should be replaced by a variety of cheaply-produced British-built weapon systems which would have a far greater deterrent value than an unproven system like Trident. Mr. Rickcord concluded his talk by calling on members to "go forth from this meeting and attack CND with our unassailable arguments, with all our strength, and at every available opportunity."

The meeting was adjourned after a very healthy collection had been made.
